

QUICK SPOT AIR GUN V2

The QUICK SPOT AIR GUN V2 is the ideal tool for effortless straightening of car body steel sheets. It combines high spec performance to comfort of use and mobility thanks to the reduced weight and dimensions. The progressive trigger allows for a better control during the sheet pulling.

Easy to use

The QUICK SPOT AIR GUN V2 can be connected to any the automatic dent puller equipped with a DINSE 35/50 socket (Texas 50).

A simple contact between the pulling point and body of the car starts the weld. A progressive push on the trigger allows to progressively pull the sheet. A quarter turn detach the pulling tip effortless.

Productivity and efficiency

Effective, the QUICK SPOT AIR GUN V2 will save you valuable time on all your dent pulling work.

Light (920g) and compact (L 165 x l 80 x H 200 mm), you will appreciate its ergonomics and its comfort to use.

Le QUICK SPOT AIR GUN is delivered with a 2.5m cables assembly.

Delivered in suitcase with:

Pneumatic connector

Steel electrodes (x2)

Flat wrench 8 mm

Features

- The electrode makes a quarter turn automatically to come off from the sheet.

- The shield simply pulls out to change the electrode.

Consumables (option)

050839 - Pulling electrodes (x5)